RIALTO CREDITORS MAY COMPROMISE.

Major Dennis Accepts Proposition to Settle on Fifty Per Cent Basis.

SETTLEMENT ON SEPTEMBER 1.

Investment Company's Attorney Will Meet Claimants' Representatives Separately and Discuss Their Claims.

Attorneys representing the creditors of the Rialto Grain and Securities Company decided, yesterday, to accept the offer of Major Hugh C. Dennis, president of the ompany, to pay 50 cents on the dollar, prorided their clients are satisfied, and Sep-ember 1 was set for making the settlement The committee of attorneys appointed to ook into the matter, when the proposition was made by Dennis to settle on a cash basis, reported at a meeting of the attorneys held in the office of the company i the Rialto building yesterday the result of its meeting last Saturday, when the suggestion to pay 50 per cent on the claims was made.

The committee recommended that the offer be accepted. The proposition means that each creditor is to confer with Thomas B. Harlan, attorney for the company, and agree upon the amount due, and that 50 per cent of this amount be paid.

It is calculated that the creditors will receive the amounts they paid to the company and a portion of the profits. Major Dennis said the total amoun which the creditors paid is a little less than $14,000. Their total claims are about $42,000 Dennis claims that the amount which the company actually owes is about $19,000.

He stated that in every case he has preserved all the papers, including the contract, and all correspondence between the creditors and the company. He will turn these over to the lawyers and they shall decide what are the amounts due, and he will pay per cent of those amounts, he states. He said that he has calculated that de-cisions will be given against him in most of the cases and that he expects to be called upon to pay about the amount which he claims is due. The court proceedings will not be pushed while the proposition to settle is pending. Major Dennis said the company will be ready to do business to-day. M. W. Sale, chairman of the attorneys'

n to act in view of the unanimous action of the upper branch.

When shown the cablegram from Bogots giving the details of the Senate's action, Doctor Herran said it was similar in tone to that received by him from the Colombian Minister for Foreign Affairs. He said there were expressions in both cablegrams which he found it difficult to interpret. The reference in the cablegram to the "American Minister's modifications" Doctor Herran would not discuss. Acting Secretary of State Adee was likewise silent. The only interpretation of this statement here is that the State Departnent, when it found that the Senate Com nittee was bound to report amendments, suggesed by cable certain modifications to Minister Beaupre which this country might be willing to accept. This, however, did not take into consideration the United States Senate, which must finally pass on an amended treaty, and which would be likely to refuse to delly longer with Coombia in case it sent back a convention

WOULD TAKE YEARS TO CHANGE THE CONSTITUTION.

Doctor Herran, in speaking of that part of the cablegram which suggested a mod-ification of the Colombia's Constitution to onform to certain sections of the treaty. said that two years would be required even to begin such a change in the Constitution. And, in two years the United States could have the Micaragua Canal already partly Doctor Herran could only explain the proposition to pass a "Colombian Spooner law" by saying that possibly the Colombian Congress might be willing, in the event of final rejection of the treaty, to pass an enabling act similar in terms to the Spooner law, thus showing what it might be willing to do in the way of concessions by treaty.

Acting Secretary of State Adee's only reply to-night to various questions calculated to clear up much of the uncertainty surrounding the situation and this Governmbian canal matters I will not dis

OPPOSITION MARSHALED ITS

Doctor Herran had this to say regarding the news of the day: "The news is bad, but I confess not sur-conditions under which the treaty was re-ected I will not say the treaty is absolute-y dead. But I must confess that the treaty with Colombia seems to be done for. It may be revived, but I fear the worst, I have done all I could. have done all I could.

"I received a telegram from a private source in New York last night, hinting that the treaty had failed in the Senata. I was roused quite late by the receipt of this dispatch, and I was not certain of the facts until acquainted with the official cablegram

"I can do nothing until I hear from the Government. If the vote had been close I might have requested the State Department, without authority from my Government, to sign a convention with me extending the time limit for the exchange of ratifications which expires by September 22. But what would be the use of this if the people of Colombia are opposed to the treaty?"
"What were the amendments proposed to the treaty by the Senate, about which you have until now been reluctant to talk?" "I don't care to discuss those yet."

"You will admit, however, as was an nounced authoritatively several days ago, that they concerned the question of sovereignty on the isthmus?" "I would rather not admit anything or that score. Of course, the Colombian people have been jealous all along of their rights on the isthmus, and I have done my best to point out to them that the United States could not interfere with these under the present treaty, but apparently all have not been convinced of that fact." TALK OF NEW REPUBLIC

TO GIVE CANAL RIGHTS. It was evident to see that Doctor Herran takes an exceedingly gloomy view of the situation. He has worked hard to negotiate a treaty with this Government and to obtain ratification at Bogota. He feels that he has failed in the latter effort unless some unexpected turn should be given public opinion in his country.

This, he thinks, is not likely, in view of the hostility aroused against the United States through Colombia by the talk, apparently emanating from official circles at Washington, to the effect that this Govern ment will go ahead and negotiate a treaty with a new Republic of Panama, in cas that state secedes from Colombia and offers to give the Washington Government satisfactory canal concessions

Talk of this character, while it may have found lodgment recently in the imagination of officials of the administration, had its real origin in the fertile brains of the French Panama Canal Company.

Anticipating months ago that the treaty was doomed, William Nelson Cromwell and his agents let fall the strong hint that a movement was afoot on the isthmus to ede from Colombia the day the treaty was rejected, organize an independent state. uletly assume the right of disposing the French Panama Canal Company's op-tion and offer to the United States the right to construct across the isthmus a canal un-der the conditions set forth in the Hay-Herran treaty.

SENATOR MORGAN'S PROPHECIES ARE BEING FULFILLED.

Conservative officials of Washington as-sert very positively that the American people will not stand for any such intermeddling in the affairs of Colombia as is con plated by the scheme of William Nel on Cromwell and the other members of the Panama Canal Company's cause.

They point out that it would be a viola-tion of the treaty of 1846 with New Granada by which this Government guaranteed once and for all time the "perfect neutrality of the before-mentioned isthmus, with the riew that the free transit from the one to parrassed in any future times while this treaty exists," and also "the rights of sovreignty and property which New Granada now Colombia, has and possesses over the erritory" (Panama).

The present situation appears to complete ly conform to all the predictions of Senator Morgan in his persistent and vigorous contest against the Panama scheme. He oped the ratification of the treaty because he said that it was only a continuation of trouble for this country, and he insisted continually that to adopt the Panama would only postpone canal building and carry out the wishes of those who did not desire any American waterway from ocean to ocean

Prince Ching made one defense after another, until all were exhausted. He first argued Russian opposition to the opening of these ports. He then said that he was not informed that Russia had consented to the opening. Finally, he refused on the ground that China was unable to open towns which were held by another Power. Visitors Cause Busy Day Among St. Louis Wholesale Millinery Stores.

OPEN-DOOR POLICY'S VICTORY. PROVE SHREWD PURCHASERS.

Hundreds of Merchants Arrive From the Prosperous Southwest, Where Crop Conditions Warrant Liberal Purchases.

The annual autumn revival of that popular performance known as "The Lady Buyers" began a two weeks engagement at the Washington wholesale houses yesterday, and from the way in which the production was received its run promises to surpass any previous performance.

The aggregation was one of the largest that has arrived in the St. Louis wholesale district during the present season and included representative women from every section of the West and South. Representatives of big millinery establishments were present from Colorado to Louisiana, and included many new arrivals, who, after trying other centers, had concluded that St. Louis was the real market for Southwestern purchasers.

Of course, there were many gentlemen in the list. They were down on the bills yesterday, and were referred to by the adles as "the mere men" of the party.

The delegation of buyers was headed by a special party of ladies on "The Richard Hanlon Company Special," which came in over the L. & N. R. R. at 3:30 o'clock Sun day afternoon, and included merchants from Pensacola, Fla., and other Florida points, Gulfport, Scranton, Miss.; Mobile, Brewton, in Alabama, as well as many Georgia points. They were personally con-ducted by W. A. Hullocks of the Hanion company.

These were followed yesterday by hundreds of others, so that by noon every store on the avenue had large delegations of buyers.

Washington avenue houses, simply had all they could handle from morning till night. The laddes proved a great attraction. Business men say they are altogether the brightest set of buyers that come to town. "By the time a bright young woman has made a preliminary round-up of the stores," said a local salesman, "and has had a few price slips shown her, she gets to be about as amooth as velvet, and can tell in a minute what the price of any ribbon or flower in the street is worth. They are certainly bright, all right, You do not have to show them more than once."
